

Business Conditions

a review by the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago

Index for the year 1959

Banking

- The changing mix of money, January, 9-12.
- Bank liquidity and rising business, June, 7-11.
- Banks have favorable experience with consumer loans, June, 12-16.
- Banks loaned up?, October, 4-8.

Business finance

- A broader horizon for field warehousing, February, 13-16.
- Financing the business upsurge, June, 4-7, 16.

Economic conditions, general

- Employment gains in Midwest and nation, May, 6-11.
- The declining small town?, May, 11-16.
- What is a dollar worth?, August, 5-8.
- Metropolitan areas, additions to the family, November, 10-12.
- The trend of business, January, 2-4; February, 2-5; March, 2-4; April, 2-5; May, 2-5; June, 2-3; July, 2-5; August, 2-5; September, 2-4; October, 2-3; November, 2-4; December, 2-4.

Farm finance and agriculture

- Agricultural exports at high level—but slipping?, February, 5-8.
- Corn, corn and more corn, April, 16.
- Credit flows into expanding cattle business, July, 14-16.
- A profile of the cattle cycle, September, 12-16.
- Shift in meat packing, November, 4-10.
- Further decline in farm income, December, 8-11.

Industry, trade and construction

- Home building in strong upturn, January, 5-9.
- Cyclical changes in retail trade, February, 8-13.
- A new era in foreign trade?, March, 5-11.
- Man-hours and electric power consumption as output indicators, April, 6-10.
- Retail trade at midyear, August, 8-10.
- Housing in 1959: another 1950?, August, 10-13.
- Competition from abroad, September, 7-11.
- Autos in '60, October, 8-12.
- Business expands abroad, December, 4-8.

Public finance

The executive messages, March, 11-16.

New techniques in debt management,

April, 10-15.

Management of the public debt,

July, 5-10.

State legislatures boost taxes,

September, 4-7, 14-16.

Plateau in defense spending?,

November, 12-16.

Government financial aid plays big role in private housing, December, 11-16.

Savings and investment

What's behind recent changes in time deposits?, January, 12-16.

Consumer saving, debt and spending for durables, July, 10-13.

Behind the rise in interest rates,

August, 14-16.

Investment in 1958: a profile,

October, 13-16.

---

